

Kerjaya Prospek wins RM56.4 mil job to build hawker centre on Penang's Gurney road

KUALA LUMPUR (Nov 12): Kerjaya Prospek Group Bhd (KL:KERJAYA) has secured a RM56.4 million construction contract from the Penang Chief Minister's Department. The contract, awarded to its wholly owned unit Kerjaya Prospek (M) Sdn Bhd, involves the construction of steel roof structures, including a hawker centre at Jalan Gurney in Penang. The contract is to be completed 18 months from Wednesday, Kerjaya Prospek said in a filing with the local stock exchange. The project is expected to provide an additional revenue stream over the next two years, and will contribute positively to earnings and net assets per share for the financial year ending Dec 31, 2025 (FY2025) to FY2027. The latest contract brings Kerjaya Prospek's total year-to-date wins to about RM1.22 billion across 10 projects, lifting its total outstanding order book to about RM3.76 billion. — by Syafiqah Salim
