KUALA LUMPUR (Jan 29): Pavilion Real Estate Investment Trust (KL:PAV-REIT) saw its net property income (NPI) in the fourth quarter rise 11.1% from a year earlier, fuelled by rental income from its newly acquired hotels.

Besides the rental income from Banyan Tree KL and Pavilion Hotel KL, acquired in June last year, NPI was also helped by higher contribution from Pavilion Bukit Jalil and marginally lower property operating expenses.

It proposed a final income distribution of 5.03 sen per unit, payable on Feb 27, bringing full-year distribution to 10 sen per unit.
