Message from the Chairman

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I am pleased to present the Annual Report of Classic Scenic Berhad (“CSCENIC”), for the financial year ended 31 December 2008.

MARKET ENVIRONMENT, CHALLENGES AND SUSTAINABLE STRATEGIES

Worldwide, the levels of volatility in commodity prices, most notably oil, have been unprecedented, causing economic turmoil when its price hit the stratosphere in 2008, with an overall worldwide dampening of consumer confidence due to rocketing inflation. Just when the oil prices came down to more logical levels, consumer recovery was hit by the sudden financial tsunami afflicting much of the western world! All of which inevitably led to a prolonged downturn in demand and intense price competitiveness in many of our traditional export markets. Additionally, the currency swings also made for a most difficult balancing act in our international trading.

However, I am glad to say here that the strategic directions we have taken have allowed us to achieve a modest turnover of RM47.4 million. Although this represents a 17% drop from previous financial period, when viewed against the backdrop of the truly trying times of 2008, I am proud to say with conviction that we have prevailed, and more importantly, will continue to sustain the momentum we have initiated in managing the challenges .

LIM CHEE KEONG
Executive Chairman

Message from the Chairman (cont'd)

A war on waste was declared whereby we diligently and rationally strove to trim the fat of all aspects of production by optimizing line runs, minimizing power and water usage, and reducing quality incidents among others. Innovation and renovation efforts continue unabated as we explore in detail the needs of our customers, deftly managing the balancing act of giving them what they want, in the most cost-effective way, and with the best value in the market.

Extra efforts were also put in to source raw materials from alternative origins, without compromising on our quality and sustainability specifications, even as we actively engaged long-term suppliers in looking at ways to rationalize their costs, and henceforth share the savings together if successful. Last but not most certainly not least, we continue to invest heavily on our human capital with constant trainings, both industrial and on personal development, and all geared towards alignment with CSCENIC's strategies and goals.

With all the above either in place, or well into implementation, we believe we will be in a very favorable position to take full

With the still positive outcome on earnings, we are confident that we will manage to sustain best performance amid the present and future challenging times, and duly deliver shareholder value, the Board proposes to declare a first and final tax-exempt dividend of 6% in respect of the financial year ended 31st December 2008 (31.12.2007: Tax exempt dividend of 9%). This proposal will be as usual, subject to shareholders' approval at the forthcoming AGM.

On 20th August 2008, a first and final tax-exempt dividend of 9%, or 4.5 cents per share, totaling RM5.4 million in respect of previous financial year ended 31st December 2007, was duly paid out.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

We are firm believers in Corporate Social Responsibility ("CSR") being not only good for business, but more importantly, the principles and practices of CSR make for a long term sustainable creation of shared value among all in CSCENIC, and its network of both suppliers and buyers.

I am glad to say here that the strategic directions we have taken have allowed us to achieve a modest turnover of RM47.4 million.

and fast advantage of the upswing in our export markets in time to come.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

As mentioned earlier, CSCENIC achieved a total revenue of RM47.4 million in 2008, a 17% drop from 2007's RM57.3 million, attributed mainly to lesser sales revenue in our major export markets, many of them as we all know are under the throes of recession! The positive side is that we still managed to turn in a reasonably profit after tax of RM7.8million under a shrinking global economy, with nett assets per share increasing slightly to RM0.74 in current financial year, versus RM0.72 in previous year.

On a product basis, CSCENIC on its own accord, carried out Lead content testing on its manufactured products, to ensure CSCENIC products are all within safety levels, and also in strict compliance to Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter 11 - Consumer Products Safety Commission of USA.

We have in place Corporate Governance best practices (as disclosed in the Statement on Corporate Governance), which is maintained as an assurance to protect shareholder's interests. On top of that, a Code of Business Ethics was further established and adopted to inculcate ethical values among all at CSCENIC, and in support of that initiative, a channel of communication was opened between all stratas of CSCENIC management, to enable quick and direct inputs for suggestions, opinions, and grievances.

Message from the Chairman (cont'd)

Remuneratively, we periodically review the total compensation package to ensure our competitiveness in the labor market so as to retain existing talents, as well as recruit new ones. Lower income staffs are accorded Cost of Living Allowances, as well as a small transportation stipend, and for all, a team building was held to foster togetherness as well as a gesture of appreciation to all from CSCENIC for a job well done. But money aside, human capital development is equally important, and CSCENIC provides a wide gamut of training opportunities for its staffs, ranging from Federation of Malaysian Manufacturers (FMM) run technical courses, to personal development seminars, without fear nor favor to any in CSCENIC.

In the area of Safety where apparent trivialities matter, we are slowly but surely ingraining upon our work force, the importance of personal behavior and common sense upon their own safety while at work in CSCENIC, as it is our philosophy that one accident is already one too many.

Environment-wise, our wood waste has been considerably reduced, as much of the wood waste is used to produce steam and generate energy. Additionally, the saw dust from our production processes are now being compressed into wood briquettes, which are used to produce heat energy. Also worthy of mention, we ensure all our timbers are from legal and traceable origins. All in all, we are proud of developments here, especially so in terms of being a good and sustainable corporate citizen.

Ever willing and conscious of the community around us, CSCENIC has made voluntary contributions to schools, charitable bodies and lesser privileged sectors of our society, without much fanfare and with much earnestness to just help.

OUTLOOK AND PROSPECTS

We expect the current year to continue being a most challenging one, and stand prepared for further short-term negative impacts to CSCENIC on a few fronts, but we have a guarded optimism that the global economy, especially among our export markets, will be on the road to recovery by later part of 2009.

The USD has strengthened, which spells out a more competitive pricing for our export-driven products. Stimulus packages introduced by many western countries, including major initiatives in the USA, also garner well that we should be able to see light at the end of the tunnel that is the global recession.

Internally, our continuous improvement initiatives born from the learning curves of the trying times experienced thus far, will surely stand us in good stead to weather the worst 2009 may bring, and more significantly, to quickly and effectively capitalize on the expected upswing to come.

Barring any unforeseen circumstances, the Group will remain profitable in the coming year.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to express my deepest appreciation to the management, staff, and work force of CSCENIC, for their dedication, commitment and untiring contributions. To our shareholders, customers and suppliers, I also thank you for their support and considerations as we undertook the difficult journey of 2008, and look forward to their continued understanding in 2009 such that a win-win situation will always be in place for all. Lastly, I also wish to put on record my sincere gratitude to my fellow directors for their invaluable counsel, and strong support.

Statement On Internal Control

Introduction

The Board of Directors (“the Board”) of Classic Scenic Berhad (“the Group”) recognises that it is the Board’s responsibility to review the adequacy and integrity of the Group’s system of internal control. The Board is committed to maintain and ensure that a system of internal control exists and operating effectively across the Group. The Board is pleased to provide this statement outlining the nature and scope of the internal control of the Group during the financial year pursuant to Paragraph 15.27(b) of the Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Bhd and compliance with Section 167A of the Companies Act, 1965.

Board Responsibilities

The Board acknowledges its responsibilities and reaffirms its commitment to recognise the importance of an effective system of internal control and risk management practices to enhance good corporate governance. In this respect, the Board is responsible for identifying principal risks, ensuring the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks and reviewing the adequacy and integrity of the Group’s systems of internal control. The system of internal control covers inter alia, governance, risk management, financial organisation, operational and compliance control. However the Board recognises that this system is designed to manage and control risk appropriately rather than eliminate the risks of failure to achieve the Group’s business objectives. Accordingly, these systems can only provide reasonable, but not absolute assurance against material misstatement of management and financial information and records or against financial losses or fraud.

The Board is of the view that the system of internal controls in place for the year under review and up to the date of issuance of the financial statements is sound and sufficient to safeguard the shareholders’ investment, the interests of customers, regulators and employees, and the Group’s assets.

The management assists the Board in the implementation of the Board’s policies and procedures on risk and control by identifying and assessing the risks faced, and in the design, operation and monitoring of suitable internal controls to mitigate and control these risks.

Risk Management

Risk management is embedded in the Group’s management systems. The Board together with the outsourced independent consultant has an established process for identifying, evaluating and managing the significant risks faced by the core business of the Group i.e. manufacturing of wooden picture frame mouldings and this process includes updating of the operational risk register and the system of internal controls when there are changes to business environment or regulatory guidelines. The outcome of the process is reviewed by the Board and accords with the guidelines for directors on internal control, the Statement on Internal Control: Guidance for Directors of Public Listed Companies.

The Board also relies largely on the close involvement of the Executive Directors of the Group in its daily operations. There are periodic reviews of operational and financial performance at Management, Audit Committee and Board Meetings. The Board and Management ensure that appropriate measures are taken to address any significant risks.

Key Internal Control Processes

The Board has considered the system of internal control in operation during the financial year and some of the key elements include the following:

- Business plan including annual budget is prepared for the Group. The Executive Committee and the Board of Directors review and approve the annual budget;
- Management accounts/reports are prepared and the actual performance compared with the budget is reviewed on a monthly basis with explanation of any major variances;
- The Executive Committee, comprising Executive Directors, meets monthly to review the financial performance of the Group to ensure that they are in line with the corporate objectives, strategies and annual budget. This Committee also formulates strategies, policies and code of practices to address changes in the business environment and risks ;

Statement On Internal Control (cont'd)

- There are proper procedures within the Group for hiring and termination of staff, formal training programmes for staff, annual performance appraisals and other relevant procedures in place to ensure that staff are competent and adequately trained in carrying out their responsibilities;
- ISO 9001:2000 Quality Management System has been implemented for the Group's core business. Internal quality audits are carried out by the management and a certification body. These audits are conducted semi-annually to provide assurance of compliance with the ISO 9001:2000 Quality Management System;
- The Audit Committee reviews the quarterly financial results, annual report, audited financial statements, Group's risk profile and internal control issues identified by the External Auditors, Internal Auditors and the management. The Audit Committee also monitors the implementation of the recommendations proposed by the External Auditors and Internal Auditors; and
- The outsourced internal audit function reviews the adequacy and integrity of the system of internal control and reports its findings to the Audit Committee on a quarterly basis. During the financial year, some areas of improvement to internal control were identified and addressed accordingly. Nevertheless, the identified weaknesses in the internal control have not resulted in any losses and/or require further disclosure in this Statement.

The Board recognises that the systems of internal control must continuously improve in line with the growth of the Group and evolving business environment. Therefore, the Board is committed to put in place adequate plans, where necessary, to continuously improve the Group's system of internal control.

1. Basis of preparation

(a) Statement of compliance

The financial statements of the Group and of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standards (FRSs), accounting principles generally accepted and the Companies Act, 1965 in Malaysia. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Listing Requirements of the Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad.

The Group and the Company have not applied the following accounting standards (including their consequential amendments) and interpretations that have been issued by the Malaysian Accounting Standards Board (MASB) but are not yet effective:

FRSs / Interpretations	Effective date
FRS 4, Insurance Contracts	1 January 2010
FRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures	1 January 2010
FRS 8, Operating Segment	1 July 2009
FRS 139, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement	1 January 2010
IC Interpretation 9, Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives	1 January 2010
IC Interpretation 10, Interim Financial Reporting and Impairment	1 January 2010

The Group and the Company plan to apply the abovementioned FRSs / Interpretations from the annual period beginning 1 January 2010.

The impact of applying FRS 4, FRS 7 and FRS 139 on the financial statements upon first adoption as required by paragraph 30(b) of FRS 108, Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors is not disclosed by virtue of the exemptions given in the respective FRSs.

The initial application of the other standards (and their consequential amendments) and interpretations is not expected to have any material impact on the financial statements of the Group.

(b) Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except as disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

(c) Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in Ringgit Malaysia (RM), which is the Company's functional currency.

1. Basis of preparation (cont'd)

(d) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and in any future periods affected.

There are no significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements other than as disclosed in the following notes:

- Note 4 - measurement of the recoverable amounts of cash-generating units
- Note 6 - investment properties

2. Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to the periods presented in these financial statements, and have been applied consistently by Group entities, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Basis of consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities, including unincorporated entities, controlled by the Group. Control exists when the Group has the ability to exercise its power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. In assessing control, potential voting rights that presently are exercisable are taken into account. Subsidiaries are consolidated using the purchase method of accounting.

Under the purchase method of accounting, the financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases.

Investment in subsidiaries is stated in the Company's balance sheet at cost less impairment losses.

(ii) Minority interest

Minority interest at the balance sheet date, being the portion of the net identifiable assets of subsidiaries attributable to equity interests that are not owned by the Company, whether directly or indirectly through subsidiaries, are presented in the consolidated balance sheet and statement of changes in equity within equity, separately from equity attributable to the equity holders of the Company. Minority interest in the results of the Group are presented on the face of the consolidated income statement as an allocation of the total profit or loss for the year between minority interest and the equity holders of the Company.

Where losses applicable to the minority exceed the minority's interest in the equity of a subsidiary, the excess, and any further losses applicable to the minority, are charged against the Group's interest except to the extent that the minority has a binding obligation to, and is able to, make additional investment to cover the losses. If the subsidiary subsequently reports profits, the Group's interest is allocated with all such profits until the minority's share of losses previously absorbed by the Group has been recovered.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(a) Basis of consolidation (cont'd)

(iii) Transactions eliminated on consolidation

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

Unrealised gains arising from transactions with subsidiaries are eliminated. Unrealised losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

(b) Foreign currency

Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated to the respective functional currencies of the Group entities at exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the balance sheet date are retranslated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at that date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at exchange rates at the dates of the transactions except for those that are measured at fair value, which are retranslated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at the date that fair value was determined. Foreign currency differences arising on retranslation are recognised in the income statements.

(c) Derivative financial instruments

The Group holds derivative financial instruments to hedge its foreign currency risk exposures.

Forward foreign exchange contracts are accounted for on an equivalent basis as the underlying assets, liabilities or net positions. Any profit or loss arising is recognised on the same basis as that arising from the related assets, liabilities or net positions.

(d) Property, plant and equipment

(i) Recognition and measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Cost includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to working condition for its intended use, and the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located. The cost of self-constructed assets also includes the cost of materials and direct labour and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs are capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Purchased software that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalised as part of that equipment.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(d) Property, plant and equipment (cont'd)

(i) Recognition and measurement (cont'd)

The cost of property, plant and equipment recognised as a result of a business combination is based on fair value at acquisition date. The fair value of property is the estimated amount for which a property could be exchanged between a willing buyer and a willing seller in an arm's length transaction after proper marketing wherein the parties had each acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion. The fair value of other items of plant and equipment is based on the market prices for similar items.

When significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Gains and losses on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment and are recognised net within "other income" or "other expenses" respectively in the income statements.

(ii) Reclassification to investment property

Property that is being constructed for future use as investment property is accounted for as property, plant and equipment until construction or development is complete, at which time it is measured at cost and reclassified as investment property.

When the use of a property changes from owner-occupied to investment property, the property is measured at cost and reclassified as investment property.

(iii) Subsequent costs

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Group and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognised in the income statements as incurred.

(iv) Depreciation

Depreciation is recognised in the income statements on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment. Freehold land is not depreciated. Property, plant and equipment under construction are not depreciated until the assets are ready for their intended use.

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

• factory buildings	50 years
• machineries, forklifts, plant and equipment	5 - 10 years
• office equipment, furniture and fittings and renovation	5 - 12 years
• motor vehicles	10 years
• computer equipment	3 years

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reassessed at the balance sheet date.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(e) Prepaid lease payments

Leasehold land that normally has an indefinite economic life and title is not expected to pass to the lessee by the end of the lease term is treated as an operating lease. The payment made on entering into or acquiring a leasehold land is accounted as prepaid lease payments that are amortised over the lease term in accordance with the pattern of benefits provided except for leasehold land classified as investment property.

Payments made under operating leases are recognised in the income statements on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives received are recognised as an integral part of the total lease expense, over the term of the lease.

(f) Intangible asset

Goodwill

Goodwill arises on business combination and is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of the acquisition over the Group's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of the acquiree.

Any excess of the Group's interest in the net fair value of acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over the costs of acquisition is recognised immediately in the income statement.

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that it may be impaired.

(g) Investment properties

(i) Investment properties carried at cost

Investment properties are properties which are owned to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or for both. These include land (other than leasehold land) held for a currently undetermined future use. Properties that are occupied by the companies in the Group are accounted for as owner-occupied rather than investment properties.

Investment properties are stated at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses, consistent with the accounting policy for property, plant and equipment as stated in accounting policy note 2(d).

Depreciation is charged to the income statements on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of 50 years for buildings. Freehold land is not depreciated.

(ii) Determination of fair value

The fair value is based on information on the latest transactions obtained from an external, independent valuation company, having appropriate recognised professional qualifications and recent experience in the location and category of property being valued.

The fair values are based on market values, being the estimated amount for which a property could be exchanged on the date of the valuation between a willing buyer and a willing seller in an arm's length transaction after proper marketing wherein the parties had each acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion.

Significant assumptions in arriving at the fair value of investment properties are disclosed in Note 6.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(h) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The cost of inventories is based on the first-in first-out principle and includes expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories and bringing them to their existing location and condition. In the case of work-in-progress and finished goods, cost includes an appropriate share of production overheads based on normal operating capacity. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The fair value of inventory acquired in a business combination is determined based on its estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and sale, and a reasonable profit margin based on the effort required to complete and sell the inventory.

(i) Receivables

Receivables are initially recognised at their cost when the contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset from another entity is established.

Subsequent to initial recognition, receivables are stated at cost less allowance for doubtful debts.

Receivables are not held for the purpose of trading.

(j) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, balances with banks and highly liquid investments which have an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(k) Impairment of assets

The carrying amounts of assets except for inventories, deferred tax assets and financial assets (other than investment in subsidiaries) are reviewed usually at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. For goodwill that have indefinite useful lives, the recoverable amount is estimated usually at each reporting date.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the "cash-generating unit"). The goodwill acquired in a business combination, for the purpose of impairment testing, is allocated to cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognised in the income statements. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the units and then to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (groups of units) on a pro rata basis.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(k) Impairment of assets (cont'd)

An impairment loss in respect of goodwill is not reversed. In respect of other assets, impairment losses recognised in prior periods are assessed at each reporting date for any indications that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to the income statements in the year in which the reversals are recognised.

(l) Share capital

Shares issue expenses

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of shares and share options classified as equity are recognised as a deduction from equity.

Purchase of share capital

When share capital recognised as equity is repurchased, the amount of the consideration paid, including directly attributable costs, is recognised as a deduction from equity and is not re-valued for subsequent changes in the fair value or market price of shares. Repurchased shares are classified as treasury shares and are presented as a deduction from total equity.

Where treasury shares are distributed as share dividends, the cost of the treasury shares is applied in the reduction of the share premium account or distributable reserves, or both.

Where treasury shares are reissued by re-sale in the open market, the difference between the sales consideration net of directly attributable costs and the carrying amount of the treasury shares is recognised in equity.

(m) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations in respect of salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave and sick leave are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related services is provided.

A provision is recognised for the amount expected to be paid under short-term cash bonus or profit-sharing plans if the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

The Group's contribution to the statutory pension fund is charged to the income statements in the year to which they relate. Once the contributions have been paid, the Group has no further payment obligations.

(ii) Share-based payment transactions

The share option programme allows Group employees to acquire shares of the Company. The grant date fair value of share options granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the employees become unconditionally entitled to the options.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(n) Provisions

A provision is recognised if, as a result of a past event, the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability.

Contingent liabilities

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

Where the Company enters into financial guarantee contracts to guarantee the indebtedness of other companies within its group, the Company considers these to be insurance arrangements, and accounts for them as such. In this respect, the Company treats the guarantee contract as a contingent liability until such time as it becomes probable that the Company will be required to make a payment under the guarantee.

(o) Payables

Payables are measured initially and subsequently at cost. Payables are recognised when there is a contractual obligation to deliver cash or another financial asset to another entity.

(p) Revenue recognition

(i) Goods sold

Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances and trade discounts. Revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer, recovery of the consideration is probable, the associated costs and possible return of goods can be estimated reliably, and there is no continuing management involvement with the goods.

(ii) Rental income

Rental income from investment property is recognised in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives granted are recognised as an integral part of the total rental income over the term of the lease.

(iii) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

(q) Interest income and borrowing costs

Interest income is recognised as it accrues, using the effective interest method.

All borrowing costs are recognised in the income statement, using the effective interest method, in the period in which they are incurred except to the extent that they are capitalised as being directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to be prepared for its intended use.

2. Significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(r) Tax expense

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Tax expense is recognised in the income statements except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity, in which case it is recognised in equity.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is recognised using the balance sheet method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is not recognised for the following temporary differences: the initial recognition of goodwill, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit (tax loss). Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to the temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax liability is recognised for all taxable temporary differences.

A deferred tax asset is recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which temporary difference can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

(s) Earnings per ordinary share

The Group presents basic and diluted earnings per ordinary share ("EPS") data for its ordinary shares. Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS is determined by adjusting the profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders and the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding for the effects of all dilutive potential ordinary shares, which comprises share options granted to employees.

(t) Segment reporting

A segment is a distinguishable component of the Group that is engaged either in providing products or services (business segment), or in providing products or services within a particular economic environmental (geographical segment), which is subject to risks and rewards that are different from those of other segments.

4.1 Impairment testing for cash-generating units containing goodwill

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the Group's manufacturing division which represents the lowest level within the Group at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes.

The recoverable amount for the above was based on its value in use and was determined by discounting the future cash flows generated from the continuing use of those units and was based on the following key assumptions:

- Cash flows were projected based on actual operating results and a 5-year projection.
- Revenue was projected flat for the first 2 years and at an anticipated annual revenue growth of 5% per annum for the remaining 3 years.
- Effective tax rates were projected to be 8% for the first 2 years and 25% for the remaining 3 years after taking into consideration the pioneer status granted to a subsidiary company, Finesse Moulding (M) Sdn. Bhd. which will expire in January 2011.
- A discount rate of 7.2% (2007: 8%) was applied in determining the recoverable amount of the unit. The discount rate was estimated based on the Group's existing rate of borrowings.

The values assigned to the key assumptions represent management's assessment of future trends in the industry and based on both external sources and internal sources (historical data).

The above estimates are not particularly sensitive in any area.

22. Segment reporting

Segment information is presented in respect of the Group's business and geographical segments. The primary format, business segments, is based on the Group's management and internal reporting structure.

Segment results, assets and liabilities include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis. Unallocated items comprise mainly interest-earning assets and revenue, interest-bearing loans, borrowings and expenses, and corporate assets and expenses.

Segment capital expenditure is the total cost incurred during the year to acquire property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets other than goodwill.

Business segments

The business segments of the Group mainly comprise manufacturing and sales of wooden picture frame moulding, wooden pallet and other timber products, investment holding and trading of foods related products.

Business segmental information has not been prepared as the Group's revenue operating profit, assets employed, liabilities, depreciation and amortisation, and non-cash expenses are mainly confined to one business segment.

Geographical segments

The manufacturing and investment holding segments are operated solely in Malaysia. In presenting information on the basis of geographical segments, segment revenue is based on the geographical location of customers while segment assets are based on the geographical location of assets.

24. Financial instruments

Exposure to credit, interest rate and currency risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business. Derivative financial instruments are partially used to hedge exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates.

Credit risk

In mitigating this risk, the management carries a continuing review over the Group's exposure to credit risk, which is monitored on an ongoing basis via credit management procedures. In addition, advances from sales order are collected from new and existing customers on a selective basis upon management consideration in order to reduce the credit risk arising there from.

As at 31 December 2008, approximately 49% (2007 - 54%) of the Group's trade receivables were due from five (2007 - five) major customers. Trade receivables balance from those major customers amounted to RM2,311,654 (2007 - RM3,248,190).

At balance sheet date, the maximum exposure to credit risk was represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset.

24. Financial instruments (cont'd)

Interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to interest rate risk mainly arises through its short-term funds. The Group does not hedge its interest rate risk.

Effective interest rates and repricing analysis

In respect of interest-earning financial assets, the following table indicates their average effective interest rates at the balance sheet date and the period in which they mature, or if earlier, reprice.

Group	Average effective interest rate per annum %	Total amount RM	Less than 1 year

Short term funds	2.7	22,951	22,951
2007

Liquidity risk

In the management of liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by the management to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in the cash flows.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk arises on sales and purchases that are denominated in a currency other than Ringgit Malaysia. The currencies giving rise to this risk are U.S. Dollar, Euro Dollar, Singapore Dollar and Japanese Yen.

During the financial year, U.S. Dollar transactions exposures are partially hedged with derivative financial instrument such as forward foreign exchange contracts. The Directors monitor the Group's exposure to foreign currency risk on an ongoing basis.

Fair values

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, deposits and prepayments, and other payables and accruals, approximate fair values due to the relatively short term nature of these financial instruments.

The Company provides financial guarantees to banks for credit facilities extended to certain subsidiaries. The fair value of such financial guarantees is not expected to be material as the probability of the subsidiaries defaulting on the credit lines is remote.
