

1. INTRODUCTION

The Fit and Proper Policy serves to guide the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) and the Board of Directors (“Board”) of Classic Scenic Berhad (“CSCENIC”) in their review and assessment of candidates who are to be appointed to the Board as well as Directors who are seeking for re-election to the Board of CSCENIC and its subsidiaries.

2. OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this Policy are to :

- (a) set out the criteria for the selection of candidates who are proposed to be appointed as Directors as well as the re-election of Directors on the Boards of CSCENIC and its subsidiaries.
- (b) ensure that each of the Directors has the character, experience, integrity, competence and time to effectively discharge his/her role as a Director of CSCENIC and its subsidiaries.

3. RESPONSIBILITY

3.1 The Board’s Commitment and Responsibilities

In the application of this Policy, the Board and NRC are primarily responsible to ensure that all Directors fulfil the fit and proper criteria and for conducting assessments of the fitness and propriety of candidates to be appointed to the Board and Directors who are seeking for re-election. For other key management personnel, decisions on appointments and assessments of the fitness and properness may be made by the Chief Executive Officer or designated personnel under the delegated authority of the Board and NRC.

The Board is committed to ensuring that each person who holds a Director position has the appropriate skills and experience in line with the role that they hold, and will make all final determinations on the fitness and propriety of the person.

3.2 NRC’s Responsibilities

The NRC is responsible for the assessment of existing Directors seeking re-election or candidates for nomination or appointment as a Director of the Group, and making recommendations to the Board on these matters.

4. FIT AND PROPER CRITERIA

The fit and proper criteria of a Director or key management personnel include but not limited to the following:

Character and Integrity

 - demonstrates willingness to devote time and effort to understand the businesses and exemplifies readiness to participate in events outside the boardroom
 - manifests passion in the vocation of a Director
 - exhibits ability to articulate views independently, objectively and constructively
 - exhibits open mindedness to the views of others and ability to make considered judgement after hearing the views of others

5. PROCEDURE FOR FIT AND PROPER ASSESSMENT

- 5.1 The fit and proper assessments on each person within the scope of this Policy shall be conducted both prior to initial appointments or whenever the Group becomes aware of information that may materially compromise a person's fitness and propriety.
- 5.2 The Group must support the fit and proper assessments with relevant information in relation to the person being assessed. Where significant reliance is placed on information that is obtained from the person being assessed, and that information is material to the determination of the person's fitness and propriety, the Group shall take reasonable steps to verify the information against independent sources.
- 5.3 The Group shall have regard to the factors set out in Section 4 in assessing a person's fitness and propriety. The Group shall assess the factors individually, as well as collectively, taking into account their relative importance.
- 5.4 Failure to meet one factor on its own does not necessarily mean failure to meet the fit and proper criteria. The Group should consider the circumstances surrounding a person's failure to meet specific factors, including the lapse of time since the occurrence of events, other contributing factors and the potential risks posed to the Group.
- 5.5 The assessment process will involve a good measure of judgement, which should be exercised objectively and in the best interests of the Group. The Group should consider that information relevant to such assessment may vary depending on the degree of an individual's influence and responsibilities in the affairs of the Group.
- 5.6 The results of the assessments are part of the Company's internal documents and shall not be disclosed or provided to any other party.

6. PERIODIC REVIEW AND DISCLOSURE

- 6.1. The NRC shall recommend any change to the Policy as the NRC deems appropriate to the Board for approval.
- 6.2. The Board should disclose the application of the Company's Fit and Proper Policy in the nomination and election of its Directors in the annual report.

This Fit and Proper Policy was adopted by the Board on 25 May 2022.
