3.0 GENERAL RULES ON GIFTS, ENTERTAINMENT AND HOSPITALITY

- 3.1 SCG employees are reminded that SCG has adopted a “No Gift” Policy, whereby, all SCG employees are prohibited from, directly or indirectly, receiving or providing gifts, entertainment and hospitality, however, subject only to certain narrow exceptions, gifts, entertainment and hospitality is allowed.
- 3.2 SCG employees are required to abide by this policy to avoid conflict of interest or the appearance of conflict of interest for either party in on-going or potential business dealings between SCG and external parties as gifts can be seen as bribes that may tarnish SCG's reputation or be in violation of anti-bribery and corruption laws. This includes participation in tender processes, on-going or potential business dealings between SCG and external parties. Under the conflict of interest circumstances, any gift, entertainment and hospitality offered by external parties must be immediately refused by the employee concerned.
- 3.3 SCG employees are responsible to check and understand any restrictions for gifts, entertainment and hospitality that has been set out by receiving company prior to offering a gift.
- 3.4 SCG employees are expected to exercise due care and diligence in accepting gifts, entertainment and hospitality. If the gifts, entertainment and hospitality places SCG under any obligation, or potential risk of an undue influence, then the employee must refuse and avoid it.
- 3.5 Value is not the only consideration. SCG employees must also take into account other factors which could be seen as an undue influence even if the gifts, entertainment and hospitality is of low value. In addition, SCG employees shall also take into account the frequency and cumulative value of exchanges with the same giver or recipient. It is not acceptable to keep offering gifts, entertainment and hospitality to the same recipient or receive repeating gifts, entertainment and hospitality from the same giver, even if each individual gifts, entertainment and hospitality is of low value.

- 3.6 The Business Unit (BU) Head or Functional Head and BU Leadership Team are responsible to exercise proper care and judgement in each case, taking into consideration pertinent circumstances, including the character of the gift, entertainment and hospitality, its purpose, the position(s) / seniority of the person(s) providing the gift, entertainment and hospitality, the business context, reciprocity, applicable laws and cultural norms.
