Subject as aforesaid, any words or expressions defined in the Act, the Central Depositories Act, the Listing Requirements and the Rules shall, if not inconsistent with this Constitution, bear the same meanings in this Constitution.

Time

Where by this Constitution, a minimum period is prescribed within which an act is to be done or omitted to be done and such minimum period is less than the minimum period required by any law from time to time, such minimum period as set out in this Constitution shall be increased to such minimum period as may be required by law.

Where by this Constitution, a maximum period is prescribed within which an act is to be done or omitted to be done and such maximum period exceeds the maximum period imposed by any law from time to time, such maximum period as set out in this Constitution shall be decreased to such maximum period as may be permitted by law.

Headings and subheadings

The headings and subheadings in this Constitution are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of this Constitution or be read as essential part of this Constitution.

BUSINESS

Directors may undertake or discontinue any business

3. The business of the Company shall, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, be carried out by or under the management of the Directors and according to such regulations as the Directors may from time to time prescribe. Any branch or kind of business which the Company may carry on may be undertaken and may be suffered to be in abeyance (whether such branch or kind of business may have been actually commenced or not) so long as the Directors shall from time to time consider advisable.

SHARES

Allotment, grant of option etc.

4. Subject to the Act and to the conditions, restrictions and limitations expressed in this Constitution and without prejudice to any special or preferred rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, the Directors may issue and allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of new shares in the capital of the Company to such persons, at such time and on such terms as they think proper PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT:-

- (a) no shares shall be issued at a discount except in compliance with the provisions of the Act;
- (b) in the case of shares of a class other than ordinary shares, the rights attaching to such shares shall be expressed in this Constitution;
- (c) every issue of shares or options to be granted to employees and/or Directors shall be subject to the prior approval of the Members in general meeting. However, no Director shall participate in any issue of shares or option to be granted unless the Members in general meeting shall have approved the amount of shares to be issued or the amount of shares which are the subject of the option to be granted to such Director and the terms of such issue or option; and
- (d) in the case of shares offered to the public for subscription, the amount payable upon subscription for each such share shall not be less than one hundred percent (100%) of the offer price of such shares.

Share Certificate

5. The Company may issue jumbo certificates in respect of shares or securities in favour of Bursa Depository as may be directed by the Securities Commission or Bursa Depository pending the crediting of shares or securities into the securities account of the person entitled to such shares or securities or as may be prescribed by the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) Act 1991 and the Rules PROVIDED ALWAYS that every certificate shall be issued under the Securities Seal or Seal in such form as the Board shall from time to time prescribe and shall bear the facsimile signature of at least one Director and a second Director or the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Board, and shall specify the number and class of shares or securities to which it relates.

| Issue of shares with preferred or special rights | 6. | Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions whether in regard to dividend voting, return of capital or otherwise as shall be expressed in the ordinary resolution creating the same and where such shares are preference shares, the rights attached thereto shall also be set out in this Constitution when such preference shares are issued. |
| Issue of preference shares | 7. | Subject to the Act and the Listing Requirements, preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as shall be provided in this Constitution at the time such preference shares are issued. |
| Repayment of preference capital | 8. | The repayment of preference capital other than redeemable preference capital, or any other alteration of preference shareholders' rights may only be made pursuant to a special resolution of the preference shareholders concerned. |
| Allotment and despatch of notices of allotment | 9. | Subject to provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, the Company shall issue, allot and despatch notices of allotment to the allottees and make an application for the quotation of such Securities within such period as may be prescribed under the Listing Requirements or by the Stock Exchange from time to time. |
| Crediting of Securities Accounts | 10. | The Company shall take all steps as are necessary to ensure that all new issues of Securities by the Company for which listing is sought are made by way of crediting the Securities Accounts of the allottees with such Securities save and except where the Company is specifically exempted from compliance with the Central Depositories Act in which event it shall so similarly be exempted from compliance with this Clause. For this purpose, the Company is authorised to notify Bursa Depository of the names of the allottees and all particulars required by Bursa Depository, to enable Bursa Depository to make the appropriate entries in the Securities Accounts of such allottees. Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, the Company shall duly observe and comply with the provisions of the Act and the Listing Requirements from time to time prescribed by the Stock Exchange as applicable to any allotment of its Securities. |
| No crediting of Securities Accounts until authorised to list | 11. | The Company must not cause or authorise its share registrar to cause the Securities Account of the allottees to be credited with the additional Securities until after the Company has filed with the Stock Exchange applications for listing of such additional Securities and been notified by the Stock Exchange that the additional Securities have been authorised for listing. |

| Power to purchase own shares | 12. | Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Listing Requirements and such other relevant laws, regulations or guidelines, the Company is allowed and shall have the power, to the fullest extent permitted, to purchase its own shares. Any shares in the Company so purchased by the Company, shall be dealt with as provided by the Act, the Listing Requirements and such other relevant laws, regulations or guidelines. |
| Powers of paying commission and brokerage | 13. | Subject to the Act, the Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the Act to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the Company. Subject to the Act, such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful. |
| Trust not to be recognised | 14. | Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any Security upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any Security, or any interest in any fractional part of a Security, or any other rights in respect of any Security, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder except only as otherwise provided for by this Constitution, the Act or Central Depositories Act required or pursuant to any order of court. |

VARIATION OF RIGHTS

|--|-----|--|
| How special rights of shares may be varied | 15. | If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the repayment of such rights and privileges attached to each class may subject to the provisions of the Act be varied, modified, commuted, dealt with, affected or abrogated with the sanction of a special resolution, which shall be carried only with the approval of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total number of issued shares of each class and passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class but not otherwise. To every such separate general meeting, the provisions of this Constitution relating to general meetings of the Company and to the proceedings thereat shall mutatis mutandis apply but so that the necessary quorum shall be two (2) persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third (1/3) in total number of the issued shares of the class (but so that if at any adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, any two (2) holders of shares of the class present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum). Provided however that in the event of the necessary majority not having been obtained in the manner aforesaid, consent in writing may be secured from Members holding at least three-fourths (3/4) of the issued shares of the class and such consent if obtained within two (2) months from the date of the general meeting shall have the force and validity of a special resolution duly carried by a vote in person or by proxy. |

LIEN ON SHARES

| Company to have paramount lien | 16. Subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act, the Rules and the Listing Requirements, the Company shall have a first and paramount lien on any share (not fully paid-up) registered in the name of a Member for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) due by him or his estate, to the Company in respect of the unpaid calls and instalments upon that specific share, and for such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay and has paid in respect of the share of the Member or deceased Member. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon. The Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempted from the provisions of this Clause. |
| Notice to pay amount due | 17. Subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, the Company may sell in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares which the Company has a lien, but no sales shall be made unless:

(a) a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable;

(b) a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable comprising unpaid calls accrued and interest and expenses within fourteen (14) days from the date of such notice, has been given by or on behalf of the Company to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy; and

(c) no payment has been received by the Company before the expiry of the said fourteen (14) days' period. |
| Transfer of forfeited shares | 18. To give effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorise any person to transfer, subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale and the remedy of the former holder of such shares or of any person claiming under or through him in respect of any alleged irregularity or invalidity, shall be against the Company in damages only. |
| Application of proceeds of sale | 19. Subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act, the Listing Requirements and the Rules, the proceeds of any such sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards payment of the unpaid calls and instalments, such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay and has paid in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member, accrued interest and costs relating to the sale and the balance, if any, shall be paid by the Company to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs. |

CALLS ON SHARES

- Calls when payable 20. (1) The Directors may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, from time to time make such calls upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares as they think fit, provided that fourteen (14) days' notice at least is given of each call, and each Member shall be liable to pay the amount of every call so made upon him to the persons by the instalments (if any) and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.
- Instalments similar to calls (2) If by the terms of the issue of any shares or otherwise, any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at any fixed times such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice had been given and all provisions hereof with respect to the payment of calls and interests thereon or to the forfeiture of shares for non-payment of calls shall apply to such amount or instalments and the shares in respect of which they are payable.
- Evidence of action for call (3) At the trial or hearing of any action or other proceeding for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member sued is entered in the Register or Record of Depositors as the holder of the shares in respect of which such call was made, that the resolution making such call is duly recorded in the minutes book and that notice of such call was duly given to the Member sued according to the provisions of this Constitution and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor that the meeting at which any call was made duly convened and constituted nor any other matters whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of a debt due from the Members sued to the Company.
- Interest on unpaid calls 21. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof a call or instalment payable in respect of a share is not paid, the holder or allottee of the share shall pay interest on the amount of the call at such rate not exceeding eight per centum per annum as the Directors shall fix from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
- Non-payment of calls 22. Any sum which by the terms of allotment of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, shall for all purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture and the like, and all other relevant provisions of this Constitution shall apply as if such sum were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided.
- Arrangements and time for payment of calls 23. The Directors may from time to time make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares as to the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls.

- Payment in advance of calls
24. (1) The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding eight per centum per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying such sum in advance. No such sum paid in advance of calls, whilst carrying interest, shall entitle the Member paying such sum to any portion of a dividend declared in respect of any period prior to the date upon which such sum would, but for such payment, become presently payable nor confer a right to participate in profits.
- No right to exercise privilege or to receive dividend
- (2) No Member shall be entitled to receive any dividend (if any is payable to such Member) or otherwise to exercise his privileges or rights as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time due and payable on every share held by him together with all interests (if any) payable by him.

INFORMATION ON SHAREHOLDING

- Company may give notice
25. (1) The Company may by notice in writing (but shall not be bound by this Clause) require any Member within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:-
- (a) to inform the Company whether he holds any voting shares in the Company as nominee or beneficial owner or as trustee; and
- (b) if he holds them as nominee or trustee, to indicate so far as he can the persons for whom he holds them by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable those persons to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- (2) Where the Company is informed in pursuance of a notice given to any person under sub-Clause (1) hereof or under this sub-Clause that any other person has an interest in any of the voting shares in the Company, the Company may by notice in writing require that other person within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:-
- (a) to inform it whether he holds that interest as beneficial owner or as trustee; and
- (b) if he holds it as trustee, to indicate so far as he can the persons for whom he holds it by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable them to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- Member to inform Company
- (3) The Company may by notice in writing require a Member to inform it, within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice, whether any of the voting rights carried by any voting shares in the Company held by him are the subject of an agreement or arrangement under which another person is entitled to control his exercise of those rights and, if so, to give particulars of the agreement or arrangement and the parties to it.

TRANSFER OF SECURITIES

|-------------------------------------|-----|--|
| Transfer | 26. | The transfers of any Deposited Securities or class of Deposited Securities in the Company shall be by way of book entry by Bursa Depository in accordance with the Rules and notwithstanding Sections 105, 106 or 110 of the Act, but subject to Section 148(2) of the Act and any exemptions that may be made from compliance with Section 148(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of the Deposited Securities. No shares shall in any circumstances be transferred to any infant, bankrupt or person of unsound mind. |
| Refusal to register transfers | 27. | Bursa Depository may refuse to register any transfer of Deposited Securities if it does not comply with the Central Depositories Act or the Rules. |
| Closing of Register | 28. | The Register and/or Record of Depositors may be closed at such times and for such period as the Directors may from time to time determine provided that it shall not be closed for more than thirty (30) days in aggregate in any calendar year. Any notice of intention to close the Register and/or Record of Depositors and the reason therefor shall be given to the Stock Exchange, such closure of the Register and/or Record of Depositors shall be at least ten (10) Market Days after the date of notification to the Stock Exchange (or such other notice period as shall be prescribed by the Stock Exchange). The said notice shall state the books closing date and purpose or purposes for the books closing. In relation to the books closing, the Company shall give written notice to Bursa Depository to issue the appropriate Record of Depositors in accordance with the Central Depositories Act and the Rules within such time as is required by Bursa Depository to enable Bursa Depository to issue the relevant Record of Depositors. |
| Fee relating to title to Securities | 29. | There shall be paid to the Company in respect of the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of marriage or death, power of attorney or other document relating to or affecting the title to any Securities, such fee as the Directors may from time to time require or prescribe. |

TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES FROM FOREIGN REGISTER

|------------------|-----|--|
| Foreign Register | 30. | Where:-

(1) the Securities of the Company are listed on another stock exchange; and

(2) the Company is exempted from compliance with Section 14 of the Central Depositories Act or Section 29 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Amendment) Act 1998, as the case may be, under the Rules in respect of such Securities, the |

Company shall, upon request of a Securities holder, permit a transmission of Securities held by such Securities holder from the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in the jurisdiction of the other stock exchange to the register of holders maintained by the registrar of the Company in Malaysia and vice versa provided that there shall be no change in the ownership of such Securities

TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES

|--|-----|--|
| Death of holder | 31. | In the case of the death of a holder of Deposited Securities in the Company, one (1) of the executors or administrators of the deceased shall subject to the executors' and administrators' compliance with all the requirements of the Rules and having been recorded in the Record of Depositors as the Depositor in lieu of the deceased holder, be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the Deposited Securities; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased holder of the Deposited Securities from any liability in respect of any Deposited Securities which had been held by him. |
| Security of deceased or bankrupt holder | 32. | Any person becoming entitled to Deposited Securities in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a holder of Deposited Securities may, upon such evidence of title being produced as may from time to time be required by Bursa Depository and the Rules and subject as hereinafter provided and if permitted by the Rules, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the Deposited Securities or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but Bursa Depository shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the Deposited Securities by that holder of such Deposited Securities before his death or bankruptcy. Before recognising any executor or administrator, Bursa Depository may require him to take out grant of probate or letters of administration as evidence. Subject to the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, a transfer of the Deposited Securities may be carried out by the person becoming so entitled in accordance with the Rules. |
| Election of person entitled to be registered himself | 33. | If the person so becoming entitled as referred to in Clause 32 elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company and Bursa Depository a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer (in such form as required by the Rules) of the Deposited Securities. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the rights to transfer and the registration of transfers of Deposited Securities shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the holder of the Deposited Securities had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that holder of the Deposited Securities. |
| Person entitled to or may receive dividend etc. | 34. | Where the holder of any Deposited Securities dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representatives or the assignee of the estate, as the case may be, shall, subject to the said personal representative or assignee having been recorded in the Record of Depositors as the Depositor in lieu of the | deceased or bankrupt holder, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors in that behalf, be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for all dividends and other moneys or distributions payable in respect of the Deposited Securities and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company or to voting or otherwise) as the holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

|-------------------------------|-----|--|
| Notice to pay calls | 35. | If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for the payment thereof the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on him or on the person entitled to the share by transmission requiring him to pay such call or instalment, or such part thereof as shall then be unpaid, together with interest thereon at such rate not exceeding eight per centum per annum as the Directors shall from time to time determine and any expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. |
| Length of notice | 36. | The notice shall specify the latest day and time (not earlier than the expiration of seven (7) days from the date of the notice) on or before which such call or instalment, or such part as aforesaid, and all interest and expenses that have accrued by reason of such non-payment are to be paid. It shall also name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that in the event of non-payment at the time and day and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited. |
| Failure to comply with notice | 37. | If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends and other distributions in respect of the shares not actually paid before the forfeiture notwithstanding that they shall have been declared. The Directors may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder. |
| Notice of forfeiture | 38. | When any share has been forfeited in accordance with this Constitution, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to Bursa Depository and holder of the share or to the person entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, as the case may be within fourteen (14) days of the forfeiture. An entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the Register opposite to the share. |
| Cancellation of forfeiture | 39. | Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid, the Directors may at any time before the forfeited share has been otherwise disposed of, cancel the forfeiture upon the terms of payment of all calls and interest due upon the share to the date of payment and expenses incurred in respect of the share and upon such further terms (if any) as they shall see fit. |

| Sale of forfeited share | 40. | Every share which shall be forfeited shall thereupon become the property of the Company, and may be subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules either cancelled or sold or re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before such forfeiture the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit. |
| Liability to Company of persons whose shares are forfeited | 41. | A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, together with interest thereon at such rate not exceeding eight per centum per annum, as the Directors shall think fit, from the date of forfeiture until payment but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares. |
| Results of forfeiture | 42. | The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Member whose share is forfeited and the Company except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by this Constitution expressly saved or as are by the statutes given or imposed in the case of past Members. |
| Evidence of forfeiture by the Company | 43. | A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited in pursuance of this Constitution and stating the date upon which it was forfeited shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share adversely to the forfeiture thereof. Such declaration, together with the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof and a certificate of proprietorship of the share under the Seal delivered to the person to whom the same is sold or disposed of, shall constitute a good title to the share. Such person shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall be discharged from all calls made prior to such sale or disposition and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any act, omission or irregularity relating to or connected with the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share. |
| Residual amounts after sale of forfeited shares | 44. | If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited, or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs. |

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

|--|-----|--|
| Conversion of shares into stock and reconversion | 45. | The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any number. In the event of such conversion, all provisions of this Constitution as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and in all such provisions, the word "share" shall include "stock" and the word "shareholder" and "Member" shall include "stockholder". |
|--|-----|--|

Holders of stock may transfer their interests 46. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum.

Holders of stock have the same rights 47. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on a winding-up) shall be conferred by an amount of the stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such privilege or advantage.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

Power to increase capital 48. The Company in general meeting may from time to time by ordinary resolution, whether all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called up or not, increase its share capital by the creation and issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount as the Company by the resolution authorising such increase directs.

Shares to be offered to Members before issue 49. (1) Subject to the Listing Requirements and any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, all new shares or other convertible Securities shall, before they are issued, be offered to such persons as at the date of offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or convertible Securities to which they are stated in the Record of Depositors as being entitled to. Such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or convertible Securities offered and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or convertible Securities offered, the Directors may, subject to this Constitution, dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new shares or convertible Securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or convertible Securities bear to shares or convertible Securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or convertible Securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Clause.

Maximum number of shares to be issued (2) Subject to the Listing Requirements and notwithstanding the existence of a resolution pursuant to Section 75 of the Act, the Company shall not issue any shares or convertible Securities if the total number of those shares or convertible Securities, when aggregated with the total number of any such shares or convertible Securities issued during the preceding twelve (12) months, exceeds ten percent (10%) of the total issued and paid-up capital of the Company, except where the shares or convertible Securities are issued with the prior approval of the Members in general meeting of the precise terms and conditions of the issue. Provided that in working out the number of shares or convertible Securities that may be issued by the Company, if the Security is a convertible Security, each such Security is counted as the maximum number of shares into which it can be converted or exercised. Provided further that except in the case of an issue of Securities on a pro rata basis to Members, no shares or other convertible Securities shall be issued to a Director, Major Shareholder or person connected with any Director or Major Shareholder unless the Members in general meeting have approved of the specific allotment to be made to such aforesaid person, such approval to be obtained in accordance with the Listing Requirements.

|---|-----|--|
| Compliance with the Act | 50. | The Company shall duly observe and comply with the provisions of the Act, the Central Depositories Act, the Rules and the Listing Requirements from time to time prescribed by the Stock Exchange as applicable to any allotment of its shares. |
| Rights and liabilities attached to new shares | 51. | Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by this Constitution, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original ordinary share capital of the Company and shall be subject to the same provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls or instalments, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the original share capital. |
| | 52. | The Company may by special resolution:- |
| Power to consolidate shares | (a) | Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived; |
| Power to cancel shares | (b) | Cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken, or agreed to be taken by any person or which have been forfeited and diminish the amount of its capital by the amount of shares so cancelled; |
| Power to subdivide shares | (c) | Subdivide shares, or any of them, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived, and so that the resolution whereby any share is subdivided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such subdivision, one or more of the shares may have any such preferred or other special rights over, or may have such deferred rights, or be subject to any such restrictions as compared with the others as the Company has power to attach to unissued or new shares; or |

- (d) subject to the Act, convert any class of shares into any other class of shares.

Power to reduce capital 53. Subject to the Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised, and consent required by law and/or confirmation by the Court.

BORROWING POWERS

Borrowing powers of Directors 54. The Directors, in the exercise of the powers of the Company, may from time to time at their discretion raise or borrow for the purposes of the Company such sums of money as they think proper.

What security may be given 55. The Directors may also, in the exercise of the powers of the Company mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures and other Securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party as permitted under the Act and the Listing Requirements.

Debenture may be assignable 56. Debentures, debenture stock or other Securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

Conditions of issue 57. Any debentures, debenture stock, bonds or other Securities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, attending and voting at general meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors and otherwise.

Register to be kept 58. The Directors shall cause a proper register to be kept in accordance with the provisions of the Act, of all mortgages and charges especially those affecting the property of the Company.

Cost of inspection 59. The sum payable for each inspection of the register of charges shall be as provided in the Act.

GENERAL MEETINGS

General meetings 60. A general meeting shall be held once in every year within six (6) months of the Company's financial year end at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors but so that not more than fifteen (15) months shall be allowed to elapse between any two (2) annual general meetings. The main venue of all meetings of members and annual general meetings shall be within Malaysia at such time and place as the Board shall determine. The chairperson shall be present at that main venue of the meeting. The meeting of Members may be held at more than (1) one venue using any technology or method that enables the Members to participate and to exercise the Members' rights to speak and vote at the meeting.

Extraordinary general meeting 61. The abovementioned general meetings shall be called annual general meetings. All other general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

Convening of extraordinary general meeting

62. The Directors may, whenever they think fit convene an extraordinary general meeting. Extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on any requisition made in accordance with the provisions of the Act, or if the Company makes a default convening a meeting in compliance with a requisition received pursuant to Section 311 of the Act a meeting may be convened by such requisitionists in the manner provided in Section 311 and 313 of the Act. Any meeting convened by requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, so that in which meetings are to be convened by the Directors. General meetings may also be called as provided in Section 310 of the Act.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Notice of general meeting and advertisement of notice

63. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the notices convening meetings shall be given to all Members (other than those who under the provisions of this Constitution or the terms of issue of the shares held by them are not entitled to receive notices of general meetings of the Company), the Directors, the auditors for the time being of the Company and the share registrar, at least fourteen (14) days before the meeting or at least twenty-one (21) days before the meeting where any special resolution is proposed or where it is an annual general meeting. At least fourteen (14) days' notice or twenty-one (21) days' notice in the case where any special resolution is proposed or where it is the annual general meeting, of every such meeting shall be given by advertisement in at least one (1) nationally circulated Bahasa Malaysia or English daily newspaper and in writing to the Stock Exchange and each stock exchange on which the Company is listed. Provided that the accidental omission to give notice to or the non-receipt of a notice by, any person entitled thereto shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

Content of notice

64. (1) Every notice calling a general meeting shall specify the place and the day and hour of the meeting and there shall appear with reasonable prominence in every such notice a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy or proxies to attend and vote instead of him.
- (2) In the case of an annual general meeting, the notice shall also specify the meeting as such.
- (3) In the case of any general meeting at which business other than ordinary business is to be transacted, the notice shall specify the general nature of such special business and shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such business and if any resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution, the notice shall contain a statement to that effect and shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of the proposed resolution.

Meeting called at short notice

65. A general meeting shall, notwithstanding that it is called by a shorter notice than is required under the Act, be deemed to be duly called if it is so agreed:-

- (1) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; or
- (2) in the case of an extraordinary general meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote thereat, being a majority which together holds not less than ninety-five percent (95%) of the total number of shares giving a right to attend and vote.

BURSA DEPOSITORY / RECORD OF DEPOSITORS

- | | | |
|--|-----|--|
| Record of Depositors | 66. | (1) The Company shall request Bursa Depository in accordance with the Rules, to issue the Record of Depositors to whom notices of general meetings shall be given by the Company. |
| Company to request for General Meeting
Record of Depositors | | (2) The Company shall also request Bursa Depository in accordance with the Rules, to issue the Record of Depositors as at the latest date which is reasonably practicable which shall in any event be not less than three (3) Market Days before the general meeting (hereinafter referred to as the “General Meeting Record of Depositors”). The General Meeting Record of Depositors shall be the final record of all Depositors who shall be deemed to be the registered holders of ordinary shares of the Company eligible to be present and vote at such meeting. |
| | | (3) Subject to the Securities Industries (Central Depositories) (Foreign Ownership) Regulations 1996 (where applicable), a Depositor shall not be regarded as a Member entitled to attend any general meeting and to speak and vote thereat unless his name appears in the General Meeting Record of Depositors. |

|---------------------------|-----|---|
| Annual General meeting | 67. | The Company shall hold an annual general meeting every year in addition to any other meetings held during that period, to transact the following business:- <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) The laying of audited financial statements and the reports of the Directors and auditors; (ii) The election of Directors in place of those retiring; (iii) The appointment and the fixing of the fee of Directors; and (iv) Any resolution or other business of which notice is given in accordance with the Act or this Constitution. |
| Quorum of general meeting | 68. | No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes, two (2) Members present in person or by proxy, or in the case of corporations which are Members, present by their representatives appointed pursuant to the provision of this Constitution and entitled to vote shall be a quorum. Notwithstanding the foregoing, | a Depositor shall not be regarded as a Member entitled to attend any meeting and to speak and vote thereat unless his name appears in the General Meeting Record of Depositors.

If quorum not present meeting adjourned or dissolved

69. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day is a public holiday, then to the immediately following day which is not a public holiday) at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the adjourned meeting, the Members present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called but no notice of any such adjournment as aforesaid shall be required to be given to the Members. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Stock Exchange shall be advised of any adjournment and the reason(s) therefor.

Chairman

70. The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting, but if there is no such chairman or if he is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, any Director shall preside as chairman, but if no Director is present or if there is no Director chosen who shall be willing to act, then the Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall choose one of their own Members to act as chairman of the meeting.

Notice of adjournment

71. The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present and shall if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

How resolutions to be decided

72. At all general meetings a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is demanded:-

- (a) by the chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) by at least three (3) Members present in person or by proxy; or
- (c) by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) by a Member or Members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid-up equal to not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the total sum paid-up on all the shares conferring that right.

| Votes counted in error | 73. | If any votes shall have been counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the result of the voting unless it is pointed out at the same meeting or at any adjournment thereof, and unless in the opinion of the chairman of the meeting, it shall be of sufficient importance to vitiate the result of the voting. |
| Objections | 74. | No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive |
| Poll to be taken as Chairman shall direct | 75. | If a poll is duly demanded in the manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The poll may be carried out either by using polling forms or by way of electronic polling at the discretion of the chairman. The electronic polling shall be carried out in such manner that the Board of Directors has approved prior to the general meeting, where such procedures will ensure the integrity of the vote. Any vote cast by way of electronic polling shall be deemed to constitute a vote by the Members (or their proxies) for all purposes of this Constitution. |
| Result of voting | 76. | A demand for a poll may be withdrawn and notice must be given of a poll not taken immediately. Unless a poll be so demanded (and the demand be not withdrawn), a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on the show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. |
| No poll in certain cases | 77. | No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment. |
| Casting vote | 78. | In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. |
| Poll and continuance of meeting | 79. | The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business, other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. |

|------------------|-----|--|
| Votes of Members | 80. | A proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands on any question at any general meeting. On a show of hands every Member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one (1) vote. In the case of a poll every Member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one (1) vote for every share held by him. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or attorney shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the | principal or the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument is given, if no intimation in writing of such death, unsoundness of mind or transfer as aforesaid has been received by the Company at its Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used. The termination of proxy shall be in accordance with the Applicable Laws.

- | | | |
| Vote of lunatic Member | 81. | If any Member becomes lunatic or be found to be of unsound mind, he may vote by his committee or other legal curator, and such committee or other legal curator may give his or their votes either personally or by proxy. |
| Appointment of proxy and qualification and rights of proxy | 82. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Subject to Clause 66, a Member shall be entitled to be present and to vote on any question either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting, on a show of hands or upon a poll and to be reckoned in a quorum in respect of any fully paid-up shares and of any shares upon which calls due and payable to the Company shall have been paid. No Member shall be entitled to vote or be recognised in a quorum in respect of any shares upon which any call or other sum so due and payable shall be unpaid.(2) A Member who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company, or at a meeting of any class of Members, may appoint more than one proxy to attend and vote instead of the Member at the meeting.(3) A proxy need not be a Member. There shall be no restriction as to the qualification of the proxy.(4) A proxy appointed to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall have the same rights as the Member to speak at the meeting.(5) If a Member has appointed a proxy to attend a meeting and subsequently he attends such meeting in person, the appointment of such proxy shall be null and void, and his proxy shall not be entitled to attend the said meeting. |
| Authorised nominee and exempt authorised nominee | 83. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Where a Member is an authorised nominee as defined in the Central Depositories Act, it may appoint more than one proxy in respect of each Securities Account it holds in ordinary shares of the Company standing to the credit of the said Securities Account.(2) Where a Member is an exempt authorised nominee which holds ordinary shares in the Company for multiple beneficial owners in one (1) Securities Account (“omnibus account”), there is no limit to the number of proxies which the exempt authorised nominee may appoint in respect of each omnibus account it holds. |

An exempt authorised nominee refers to an authorised nominee defined under the Central Depositories Act, which is exempted from compliance with the provisions of subsection 25A(1) of the Central Depositories Act.

- (3) Where a Member or the authorised nominee or an exempt authorised nominee appoints more than one proxy, the proportion of shareholdings to be represented by each proxy must be specified in the instrument appointing the proxies.
- (4) An exempt authorised nominee which intends to appoint multiple proxies, must submit separate instruments of proxy.

| How instrument to be executed | 84. | The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if such appointer is a corporation, either under its common seal or the hand of its officer or attorney duly authorised. An instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting shall be deemed to include the power to demand a poll on behalf of the appointer. |
| Instrument to be left at the Office | 85. | The instrument appointing a proxy, with the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified or office copy of such power of authority, shall be legible and deposited at the Office or at such other place within Malaysia (if any) as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting either personally, by fax, electronic mail or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter during business hours not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the person named as proxy in such instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof. In the case where the Member is a corporation and the instrument appointing a proxy is delivered by fax or electronic mail, the original proxy form shall also be deposited at the Office either personally or by post not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting. |
| Form of proxy | 86. | The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in such form as the Directors may from time to time prescribe or approve. |
| Every right exercisable by attorney | 87. | Every power, right or privilege herein given to any Member to convene, attend, vote at and in any way take part in any meeting of the Company, may be exercised in the event of such Member being abroad by any attorney or attorneys duly appointed by such Member provided that the power of attorney is produced at or reach the Office either personally, by fax, or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter during business hours at least forty-eight (48) hours before the same is acted on. And any vote given or things done by such attorney or attorneys shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the Member giving such power of attorney or the revocation of such power of attorney provided no intimation in writing of the death or revocation shall have been received at the Office and before such vote is given or thing done. |

|---------------------|-----|--|
| Number of Directors | 88. | Until otherwise determined by the Company in a general meeting, the number of Directors (disregarding alternate directors) shall not be less | than two (2). Subject to the Listing Requirements, at least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3) of the Board of Directors, whichever is higher, shall be Independent Directors.

Appointment of additional Directors

89. Subject to Clause 88, the Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next annual general meeting and shall then be eligible for re-election (but he shall not be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting).

Director need not be Member

90. It shall not be necessary for a Director to hold any shares in the share capital of the Company in order to qualify to be a Director.

Qualification, vacation of office and removal of directors

91. No person shall be appointed or allowed to act as a Director or be involved whether directly or indirectly in the management of the Company, including acting in an advisory capacity in relation to the Company, if he:-

- (a) has been convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere, of an offence in connection with the promotion, formation or management of a company;
- (b) has been convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere, of an offence, involving fraud or dishonesty or where the conviction involved a finding that he acted fraudulently or dishonestly; or
- (c) has been convicted by a court of law of an offence under the securities laws or the Act, within a period of five (5) years (or such period as shall be prescribed by the Stock Exchange) from the date of conviction or if sentenced to imprisonment, from the date of release from prison, as the case may be.

For the purpose of this Clause, “securities laws” means the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007, the Central Depositories Act and the Securities Commission Act 1993, or such other prevailing laws or regulations of the relevant authorities.

Office of Director vacated in certain circumstances

92. Subject as herein otherwise provided and to the terms of any subsisting agreement, the office of a Director shall be vacated:-

- (a) If he becomes a bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally during his term of office;
- (b) If he becomes of unsound mind during his term of office;
- (c) If he ceases to be a Director by virtue of the Act;
- (d) If he resigns from his office by notice in writing given to the Company;

- (e) If he is removed from his office by ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting of which special notice has been given;
- (f) if he becomes prohibited from being a Director by reason of any order made under the Act;
- (g) If he is absent from more than fifty percent (50%) of the total Directors' meetings held during a financial year of the Company PROVIDED THAT the Stock Exchange may, on application by the Company, allow such Director to continue holding his office on such circumstances as may be approved by the Stock Exchange; or
- (h) If he is convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere in relation to the offences set out herein in Clause 91; or
- (i) If he retires in accordance with the Act or under this Constitution and is not re-elected.

MANAGING DIRECTORS

Directors may appoint
Managing Director

93. (1) The Directors may from time to time appoint or renew the appointment of any one or more of their body to be the managing director(s) of the Company for such period not exceeding such maximum period as shall be permitted by the Listing Requirements, if any and upon such terms as they think fit, and may vest in such managing director(s) such of the powers hereby vested in the Directors generally as they may think fit and such powers may be made exercisable for such period or periods, and upon such conditions, and subject to such restrictions, and generally upon such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as they may determine. The Directors may entrust to and confer upon a managing director any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think fit, subject thereto such managing director, or a person performing the function of a managing director, by whatever name called, shall be subject to the control of the Board of Directors and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter, or vary all or any of such powers.

 - (c) fees of Directors and benefits payable to Directors shall include any compensation for loss of employment as an Executive Director and be subject to annual shareholders' approval at a general meeting; and
 - (d) save as expressly set out in this Constitution, any fee paid to an alternate Director shall be agreed upon between himself and the Director nominating him and shall be paid out of the remuneration of the latter.

Reimbursement of expenses to Directors

96. The Company may reimburse to any Director all such reasonable expenses as he may incur in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or of any committee of the Directors, or general meetings, or otherwise in or about the business of the Company in the course of the performance of his duties as a Director.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

Appointment of alternate director and remuneration of alternate director

97. (a) Any Director may at any time by writing under his hand and deposited at the Office appoint any person to be his alternate director provided that such person is not a Director, such person does not act as an alternate for more than one Director, and the appointment is approved by a majority of the other members of the Board. Any fee paid by the Company to the alternate director shall be deducted from the remuneration of the Director who appointed such alternate director.

- Nomination of alternate director
- (b) The nomination of an alternate director shall be valid if made by fax or electronic mail, provided that such nomination shall be confirmed by a written nomination complying with the abovementioned requirements.
- Revocation
- (c) Any appointment of an alternate director may be revoked at any time by the Director appointing him.
- Office of alternate director vacated in certain circumstances
- (d) The appointment of an alternate director shall ipso facto be vacated:-
- (i) on the happening of any event which if he were a Director would render him legally disqualified from acting as a Director;
 - (ii) if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a Director;
 - (iii) if his appointor or the majority of the other Directors revoke his appointment by delivering a written notice to such effect to the Office; or
 - (iv) if he resigns from his office by notice in writing given to the Company.
- If however any Director retires by rotation and is re-elected by the Company in general meeting or is deemed to be re-elected at the meeting at which such retirement took effect, any appointment of an alternate director made by him pursuant to this Constitution which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue to operate after such re-election as if he had not so retired.
- Alternate directors entitled to notice
- (e) An alternate director shall be entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present and generally in the absence of his appointor to perform all the functions of his appointor as Director.
- Alternate director an officer of the Company
- (f) Every person acting as an alternate director shall be an officer of the Company and he shall not be deemed to be an agent of the Director whom he represents. An alternate director may be reimbursed by the Company such expenses as might properly be reimbursed to him as if he were a Director and he shall be entitled to receive from the Company such proportion (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct, but save as aforesaid and as expressly set out in this Constitution, he shall not in respect of such appointment be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

- General power of Directors to manage Company's business
98. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may exercise all such powers of the Company and do on behalf of the Company all such acts as are within the scope of the Constitution of the Company and as are not by the Act or by this Constitution required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to this Constitution, the provisions of the Act and such regulations not being inconsistent with this Constitution as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, but no regulation so made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made. The general powers given by this Clause shall not be limited or restricted by any special authority or power given to the Directors by any other Clause. Provided that any acquisition or disposal of a substantial portion of the Company's undertaking or property shall be subject to the approval by the Members in general meeting. A Director shall at all times exercise his powers for a proper purpose, in good faith and in the best interest of the Company and shall act honestly and use reasonable care, skill and diligence in the discharge of the duties of his office and shall not make use of any information acquired by virtue of his position to gain directly or indirectly an improper advantage for himself or for any other person or to cause detriment to the Company. Every Director shall give notice to the Company of such events and matters relating to him as may be necessary or expedient to enable the Company and its officers to comply with the requirements of the Act.
- Directors' borrowing powers
99. The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company's or any of its related company's business on such terms as they think fit and may secure the repayment of the same by mortgage or charge upon the whole or any part of the Company's or subsidiaries' undertaking, property (both present and future) and uncalled or unissued capital and may issue bonds, debentures and other securities whether charged upon the whole or part of the assets of the Company or otherwise.
- Power to appoint attorneys
100. The Directors may from time to time and at any time, by power of attorney or otherwise appoint any one or more of their number or any other person or persons (whether employed by the Company or not) or any company or firm to be attorneys or agents of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under this Constitution) including the power to sub-delegate and for such period and on such conditions as the Directors may think fit and they may revoke or vary any such appointment or delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of such revocation or variation shall be affected thereby.
- Use of seal abroad
101. The Company or the Directors on behalf of the Company may exercise the powers conferred by the provisions of the Act with regard to having an official seal for use abroad, and the powers conferred by the provisions of the Act with regard to the keeping of a branch register.

- Signature of cheques and bills
102. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the Directors shall from time to time by resolution determine.
- Continuing Directors may act to fill vacancies or summon meetings
103. The remaining Directors may continue to act at any time, notwithstanding any vacancy in their body but if and so long as their number is reduced below the minimum number fixed by or pursuant to this Constitution, the remaining Directors may, except in an emergency, act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to such minimum number, or to summon a general meeting of the Company, but not for any other purpose.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

- Notice for election
104. No person, not being a retiring Director, shall be eligible for election to the office of Director at any general meeting unless a Member intending to propose him for election has, at least eleven (11) clear days before the meeting, left at the Office a notice in writing duly signed by the nominee, giving his consent to the nomination and signifying his candidature for the office, or signifying the intention of such Member to propose him for election, PROVIDED THAT in the case of a person recommended by the Directors for election, nine (9) clear days' notice only shall be necessary. Notice of every candidate for election as a Director shall be served on all Members at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place. The cost of serving the notice as aforesaid on the registered holders of shares where the nomination is made by a Member, shall be borne by the Member making the nomination.
- Removal of Directors
105. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, and may, if thought fit, by ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead. The person so appointed shall be subject to retirement by rotation at the same time as if he had become a Director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a Director. In default of such appointment, the vacancy so arising may be filled by the Directors as a casual vacancy.
- Retirement by rotation
106. (1) At the first annual general meeting of the Company, all the Directors (including the managing director(s)) shall retire from office, and at the annual general meeting in every subsequent year, one-third (1/3) of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third (1/3) shall retire from office. An election of Directors shall take place each year. Each Director shall retire once at least in each three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election.
- (2) The Directors to retire in each year shall be those who, being subject to retirement by rotation, have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became Directors or were last re-elected as Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

- (3) A retiring Director shall retain office until the close of the meeting at which he retires.
- (4) A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

Re-election of retiring Directors

107. The Company at the meeting at which a Director retires under any provision of this Constitution may by ordinary resolution fill up the vacated office by electing thereto the retiring Director or some other person eligible for appointment. In default the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected unless:

- (a) at such meeting, it is expressly resolved not to fill up such vacated office, or a resolution for the re-election of such Director is put to the meeting and lost; or
- (b) such Director has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected.

108. At a general meeting at which more than one (1) Director is to be elected, each candidate shall be the subject of a separate motion and vote unless a motion for the appointment of two (2) or more persons as Directors by a single resolution shall have first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

Meeting of Directors and notice of meeting

109. (a) The Directors or a committee of Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. A Director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of a Director shall, at any time summon a meeting of Directors. Notice of meetings shall be given in writing to all Directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director or Alternate Director for the time being absent from Malaysia. The Third Schedule of the Act does not apply to the Company.

- (b) Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, at least seven (7) days' notice of all Directors' meetings shall be given by hand, post, facsimile, electronic form or other form of electronic communications to all Directors and their alternate Directors who have a registered address in Malaysia, except in the case of an emergency, where reasonable notice of every Directors' meeting shall be given in writing. It shall not be necessary to give any Director or alternate Director, who does not have an address in Malaysia, registered with the Company, notice of a meeting of the Directors by hand or by post. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting either prospectively or retrospectively. The notice of each Directors' meeting shall be deemed to be served on a Director upon delivery if delivered by hand, or immediately if sent by facsimile, electronic form or other form of electronic communications or if sent by post, on the day on which a properly stamped letter containing the notice is posted.

- Quorum and voting 110. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business of the Directors shall be two (2) Directors. Questions arising at any meeting of Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote, except that where two (2) Directors form a quorum and only two (2) Directors are present, or there are only two (2) Directors who are competent to vote on the question at issue, the Chairman shall not have a casting vote.
- Participation at Directors' meetings by way of teleconferencing 111. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Constitution, any Director may participate at a meeting of Directors by way of telephone or video conferencing or by means of other communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear each other, in which event such Director shall be deemed to be physically present at the meeting whether for the purposes of this Constitution or otherwise. A Director participating in a meeting in the manner aforesaid may also be taken into account in ascertaining the presence of a quorum at the meeting. Any meeting held in such manner shall be deemed to be held at such place as shall be agreed upon by the Directors attending the meeting provided that at least one (1) of the Directors present at the meeting was at such place for the duration of that meeting.
- Election of Chairman 112. The Directors or a committee of Directors may from time to time elect a chairman of the Board of Directors who shall preside at meetings of Directors and determine the period for which he is to hold office. The chairman so elected, shall preside at all Directors' meetings but if no such chairman be elected or if at any meeting, the chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present shall choose one of their numbers to act as chairman of such meeting.
- Power to appoint committees 113. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such members of their body or any other person or persons as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on them by the Directors.
- Chairman of committees 114. A Committee may elect a chairman of its meetings. If no such chairman is elected or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members present may choose one of their numbers to be chairman of the meeting. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of committee meeting shall have a second or casting vote. However, in the case of an equality of votes and where two (2) committee members form a quorum, the chairman of a meeting at which only such a quorum is present or at which only two (2) committee members are competent to vote on the question at issue, shall not have a casting vote.
- Meetings of Committee Meetings 115. A Committee may meet and adjourn its meetings as its members think proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present. Meetings and proceedings of the Committee shall be governed by the provisions contained in this Constitution for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors so far as the same are applicable thereto.

- Power to establish local boards and executive committee
116. The Directors may establish any local boards or executive committee for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in Malaysia or elsewhere and may lay down, vary or annul such rules and regulations as they think fit for the conduct of the business thereof, and may appoint persons to be members of such local board or executive committee, and may fix their remuneration and may delegate to such local board or executive committee any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in the Directors with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the members of such local board or executive committee or any of them to fill any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and the Directors may remove any person so appointed and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.
- Validity of acts of Directors
117. All acts bona fide done by any meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director, local board or executive committee member shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director, local board or executive committee member as aforesaid.
- Declaration of interest
118. A Director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Listing Requirements. In addition, a Director shall also declare his interests in a contract, proposed contract or arrangement contract by the Company with any other company in which a Director is interested either as an officer of that other company or as a holder of shares or other securities in that other company.
- Restriction on voting
119. (1) (a) Subject to and save as otherwise provided in the Act, a Director shall not participate in any discussion and shall not vote in regard to any contract or proposed contract or arrangement in which he is directly or indirectly interested nor any contract or proposed contract or arrangement with any other company in which he is interested either as an officer of that other company or as a holder of shares or other securities in that other company, and if he shall do so, his vote shall not be counted
- Director may hold other office under the Company
- (b) A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of auditor of the Company) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to the remuneration and otherwise) as the Directors may determine. No Director or intending Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract, or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of any company in which any Director is in any way interested, be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested, be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, provided that disclosure of interest is made as required by the Act.

Director may act in a professional capacity

(c) Any Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director, providing that nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or his firm to act as the auditor of the Company.

General notice of interest in contract

(d) A general notice that a Director, alternate director or managing director is a Member of or interested in any specified firm or corporation with whom any contract is proposed to be entered into in relation to the affairs of the Company and is therefore to be regarded as interested in all transactions with such firm or corporation shall be a sufficient disclosure as regards such Director and the said transaction and after such general notice it shall not be necessary for such Director to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or corporation.

Director's interest in corporation promoted by the Company

(2) A Director may become a director or other officer of or otherwise interested in any corporation promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director or officer of, or from his interest in such corporation unless the Company otherwise directs at the time of his appointment. The Directors may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares or other interest in any such other corporation held or owned by the Company, or exercisable by them as directors of such other corporation in such manner and in all respects as they think fit (including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing themselves or any of the directors or other officers of such corporation), and any Director may vote in favour of the exercise of such voting rights in the manner aforesaid, notwithstanding that he may be, or is about to be appointed a director or other officer of such corporation and as such is or may become interested in the exercise of such voting rights in the manner aforesaid.

Additional remuneration

120. Any Director who is appointed to any executive office or who serves on any committee or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the Directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director, may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise as the Directors may determine but not a commission on or percentage of turnover. Such remuneration payable to this Director shall be subject to annual shareholders' approval at a general meeting.

|---|------|--|
| Pensions | 121. | (1) The Directors may pay pensions or allowances (either revocable or irrevocable and either subject or not subject to any terms or conditions) to any full-time Director as hereinafter defined on or at any time after his retirement from his office or employment under the Company, and/or on or after his death to his widow or other dependants. (2) The Directors shall also have power and shall be deemed always to have power to establish and maintain any schemes or funds for providing pensions, sickness or compassionate allowance, life assurances or other benefits for staff (including any Directors for the time being holding any executive office or any office of profit) or employees of the Company or for the widow or other dependants of such persons and to make contributions out of the Company's moneys for any such schemes or funds. |
| Minutes to be kept of all Directors' meetings | 122. | The Directors shall cause proper minutes to be made of all proceedings of each meeting of Directors and of the attendances thereat, and any such minutes signed by the chairman of such meeting or by the chairman of the next meeting, shall be conclusive evidence, without any further proof of the facts therein stated. |
| Circular resolutions in writing | 123. | A resolution in writing signed or approved by a majority of the Directors or members of a Committee for the time being by letter, telefax, electronic mail or any form of electronic approval or electronic signature or digital signature via software, electronic devices or other means of telecommunication apparatus or devices, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as a resolution passed at a meeting of the Directors or Committee duly convened, held and constituted, and an alternate director may sign such resolution on behalf of his appointor. All such resolutions may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one (1) or more Directors or members of the Committee, or their alternates. |

AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

- | | | |
|--|------|---|
| Power to authenticate documents | 124. | Any Director or the Secretary or any person appointed by the Directors for the purpose shall have power to authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the Company and any resolutions passed by the Company or the Directors, and any books, records, documents and financial statements relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies thereof or extracts therefrom as true copies of extracts; and where any books, records, documents or financial statements are kept elsewhere than at the Office, the local manager or other officer of the Company having the custody thereof shall be deemed to be a person appointed by the Directors as aforesaid. |
| Certified copies of resolutions of the Directors | 125. | A document purporting to be a copy of a resolution of the Directors or an extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Directors which is certified as such in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding Clause shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with | the Company upon the faith thereof that such resolution has been duly passed or as the case may be, that such extract is a true and accurate record of a duly constituted meeting of the Directors.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES

|-----------------|---|
| Representatives | 126. Any corporation which is a Member may by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) at any meeting of the Company or of any class of Members, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member. |
|-----------------|---|

SECRETARY

|-------------------------------------|---|
| Appointment of Secretary | 127. The Secretary or Secretaries shall be appointed by the Directors for such term or terms at such remuneration and upon such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and any Secretary or Secretaries so appointed may be removed by them, but without prejudice to any claim he or they may have for damages for any breach of contract of service with the Company. |
| Appointment of substitute Secretary | 128. The Directors may from time to time by resolution appoint a temporary substitute for the Secretary, who shall be deemed to be the Secretary during the term of his appointment. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| Seal to be affixed with authority of the Directors | 129. The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal which shall only be used pursuant to a resolution of the Directors or a committee of the Board authorised to use the Seal. Every instrument to which the Seal is affixed shall be autographically signed by a Director and either by a second Director or by the Secretary or by another person appointed by the Board for the purpose, save and except that, in the case of a certificate or other document of title in respect of any share, stock, loan stock or debenture as defined in the Act or any other obligations, warrants, call warrants or securities and instruments of any kind whatsoever relating to all the aforesaid created or issued or dealt with or marketed or sold by the Company, such certificate or document of title may be created or issued under the Seal or the Securities Seal (for affixing onto share certificates only pursuant to Clause 131 hereof), as the case may be, of the Company and the Board may by resolution determine that such signatures may be affixed by some mechanical electronic facsimile or autographical means or by such other means to be specified by the Board from time to time in such resolution. |
|--|--|

The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 62 of the Act with regard to having an official Seal for use abroad and such powers shall be vested in the Board.

- | | |
|------------|---|
| Share seal | 130. The Company may also have a Securities Seal pursuant to Section 63 of the Act. The Securities Seal is an exact copy of the Seal of the Company with the addition on its face of the word "Securities" which is specifically used for affixing onto certificates that may be issued by the Company for any share, stock, loan stock, debentures or other marketable security relating to all aforesaid created or issued or dealt | with or marketed or sold by the Company and the affixing of the Securities Seal shall be authenticated in the manner set out in Clause 129 hereof.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE FUND

|----------------------------------|------|---|
| Declaration of dividends | 131. | The Directors may, from time to time, declare dividends subject to the provisions of the Act, but no such dividends shall be payable except out of profits of the Company and the declaration of the Directors as to the amount of the net profits shall be conclusive. The Board of Directors may authorise a distribution at such time and in such amount as the Board considers appropriate, if the Board is satisfied that the Company will be solvent immediately after the distribution is made. The Company is regarded as solvent if the Company is able to pay its debts as and when the debts become due within twelve (12) months immediately after the distribution is made. |
| Apportionment of dividends | 132. | Subject to the rights of holders of shares with special rights as to dividend (if any), all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid-up on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but (for the purposes of this Clause only) no amount paid-up on a share in advance of calls shall be treated as paid-up on the share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid pro-rata according to the amounts paid-up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as if paid-up (in whole or in part) as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly |
| Power to carry profit to reserve | 133. | The Directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for the gradual liquidation of any debt or liability of the Company, or for repairing or maintaining any works connected with the business of the Company or shall with the sanction of the Company in general meeting be, as to the whole or in part, applicable for equalising dividends or for distribution by way of bonus among the Members for the time being on such terms and in such manner as the Company in general meeting shall from time to time determine, and pending such application the Directors may employ the sums from time to time so set apart as aforesaid in the business of the Company or invest the same in such securities as they may select, or subject to the Act and the Listing Requirements, for the purchase of the shares of the Company. The Directors may also from time to time carry forward such sums as may be deemed expedient in the interest of the Company. |
| Payment of dividends in specie | 134. | The Company may, upon the recommendation of the Directors, by ordinary resolution direct payment of a dividend, either in whole or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures or debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways; and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution, and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may | determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors.

| Payment of dividends | 135. | Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares or other Securities may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the Member or person entitled thereto as it appears in the Register, or paid via electronic transfer or remittance to the bank account provided by the Member or person entitled thereto who is named in the Register and/or Record of Depositors, or if several persons registered as joint holders of the shares or Securities are entitled thereto, to the registered address or via electronic transfer or remittance to the bank account provided by the joint holder first named on the Register or to the extent permissible under the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, in the Record of Depositors or to such person and to such address or bank account as the holder or first named joint holder may in writing direct, or if several persons are entitled thereto in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, to any one of such persons and to such address or bank account as such persons may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer or remittance shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent or to such person as the holder or joint holders or person or persons entitled to the shares or Securities in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder may direct. The payment of any such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer or remittance shall operate as a good discharge to the Company in respect of the dividend represented thereby, notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or that the endorsement thereon or the instruction for the electronic transfer or remittance has been forged, or regardless of any discrepancy in the details of bank account given by the Member. Every such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer or remittance shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money thereby represented and the Company shall have no responsibility for any sums lost or delayed in the course of any transfer or where the Company has acted on any such instructions. |
| No alteration to dividend | 136. | Unless otherwise permitted by the Listing Requirements or a waiver in writing is obtained from the Stock Exchange, once a dividend has been declared, no subsequent alteration to the dividend and entitlement may be made. All dividends are to be paid within the timeframe as stipulated in the Listing Requirements. |
| Interest on dividend and power to retain dividends | 137. | (1) Every dividend warrant may be sent by post to the last registered address of the Member entitled thereto, and the receipt by the person, whose name on the date of the declaration of the dividend appears on the Register or Record of Depositors as the owner of any share shall be a good discharge to the Company for all payments made in respect of such share. No dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company. |

- (2) The Directors may retain any dividend payable to a Member or any part thereof and set the same off against the amount of any call made in respect of such Member's shares and unpaid and whether such call shall have been made before or after the declaration of the dividend in question.

- Retention of dividends on shares subject to lien 138. Subject to the Listing Requirements, the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules, the Directors may retain any dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
- Retention of dividends on shares pending transmission 139. The Directors may retain the dividends payable on shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained to become a Member, or which any person under those provisions is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same.
- Unclaimed dividends 140. All dividends unclaimed for one (1) year after having been declared and paid, shall be dealt with by the Company in accordance with any law for the time being in force relating to unclaimed moneys. The payment by the Directors of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of shares into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof.
- Right to dividend in respect of a Deposited Security credited in a Securities Account 141. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Constitution, a Depositor's entitlement to dividends, rights issues, bonus issues or any other rights or options in the Company credited in a Securities Account by virtue of any Deposited Security standing to the credit of his Securities Account shall be subject to the Act, the Central Depositories Act and the Rules.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

- Power to capitalise profits 142. The Company may, upon the recommendation of the Directors, by ordinary resolution resolve that it is desirable to capitalise the whole or any part of the sum for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or any sum for the time being standing to the credit of the income statement or otherwise available for distribution amongst the Members, provided that such sum be not required for paying the dividends on any shares carrying a fixed cumulative preferential dividend, and accordingly that the Directors be authorised and directed to appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the Members in the proportion in which such sum would have been divisible amongst them had the same been applied or been applicable in paying dividends, and to apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares or debentures of the Company of an amount equal to such sum, such shares or debentures to be allotted, distributed and credited as fully paid-up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid or partly in one way and partly in the other.

- Capitalisation of profits 143. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid is passed, the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Directors to make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or (as the case may require) for the payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.

MINUTES AND REGISTERS

- Minutes 144. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books to be provided for the purpose:-
- (a) of all appointments of officers made by the Directors;
 - (b) of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of Directors and of any committee of Directors, and of the Members in general meeting; and
 - (c) of all resolutions and proceedings at all general meetings of the Company and of any class of Members of the Company, and of the Directors and of the committees of Directors.

Such minutes shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting and if so signed, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

- Keeping of registers 145.
